Leonard Harvey and Ponce Dysart, both negroes residing near Yates, became involved in a quarrel Thursday night. Friday morning they renewed the trouble. They were riding horse back, both on the same horse. Dysart shot Harvey in the back with a 38 caliber revolver. The bullet glanced around a rib and was taken out near the breast bone. It is thought he will recover. Dysart gave himself up to the authorities.

The Glasgow Missourian published last week a letter from W. Goff Caples, first lieutenant corps of engineers, an old Glasgow boy, that throws considerable light on the character of Rumsey, the C. & A. train robber. According to Lieutenant Caples, Rumsey is just about as bad as they ever make them. He says: "No matter what the jury gives him, it won't be any more than is coming to him."

Professor John D. Taylor has resigned his position as principal of the Hale public school. It seems that some nasty stories had been circulated in Hale and Prof. Taylor was given considerable censure. Prof. Taylor was accused of embracing some of his girl pupils. County Commissioner Earp made a thorough investigation at the request of Prof. Taylor and we are pleased to state that that gentleman was fully exonerated. As soon as he had been exonerated Prof. Taylor resigned his position. The schools of that city have been temporarily dismissed until another principal can be secured.

The Original Poreus Plaster.

It's Allcock's, first introduced to the people 60 years ago, and to-day undoubtedly has the largest sale of any external remedy—millions being sold annually throughout the whole civilized world. There have been imitations, to be sure, but never has there been one to even compare with Allcock's—the world's standard external remedy.

For a weak back, cold on the chest or any local pain, the result of taking cold or overstraining, there's nothing we know of to compare with this famous plaster.
